

Welcome to NAVY BLEND!

This is a place we originally inspired but then this same place inspired to us various feelings, experiences, scenes, all linked to the enchanting world of the sea, such as:

- The distinguishing aroma of a navy blend tobacco
- The strong taste of a navy rum
- The chase of the big fish
- Diving into the infinite blue
- Discovering new worlds
- The peace of finding a shelter at the end of the perfect storm
- Escaping from everyday life
- Conquering freedom
- Sharing the sea adventures and reflections in the classic books written by Ernest Hemingway, Herman Melville, Joseph Conrad and Patrick O Brian.

We will be happy to read your thoughts about NAVY BLEND!
